Nauru Trade Notice Change to Nauru Tariff currency and Bunker Adjustment Factor

Dear Valued Customer,

Neptune Pacific Line (NPL) wishes to advise the Trade that under the Central Pacific Shipping Commission (CPSC) which assists to continually promote the economic development and sustainability of the Pacific Islands Countries and Territories that we will be making adjustment to our pricing structure which covers Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Asia and Rest of the World as follows:

- Tariff – will be moving to USD denomination tariff. Should customers wish to pay in local currency then this remains acceptable at the prevailing foreign exchange rate for the applicable vessel.
- Bunker Adjustment Factor (BAF) – will be moving to USD lump sum per Teu basis with the fuel price continuing to be monitored on a quarterly basis with any + / - changes advised to the trade with appropriate notice period.

The above becomes effective from the Capitaine Quiros v76N.
